Spring/Summer 93

Before the show, we go to this restaurant where other homopunks should be meeting. We eat there. Inside, nothing looks like old style punk (black leather) or new style punk (stupid shorts and a backwards baseball hat). Outside, things are different.

There they are. MRR's own Matt, John G. from PANSY DIVISION, Anonymous Boy who's the world's best homotoonist, some Riot Grrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrls, and a buncha others. John G and I talk about old times. (I took pictures for his high school zine, Hoopla, around 1978. That's a long time ago, buckaroos.) Everyone is very friendly.

—→ Kisses to the artist dept: Special thanks to Anonymous Boy, the great homopunk cartoonist who I saw at the Washington March. He gave me a copy of his zine Violin Outbreak and a buncha cartoons. (I'm stealing at least one for the next NOTHING BUT RECORD REVIEWS.) The guy's a genius. You can see for yourself by writing to: Tony Arena, 321 West 16 St (2W), NYC NY 10011.

Things we found inside:
The Homocore Hit
Parade, Girl to Girl by Tracie Thomas, lots of pictures of the Sex Pistols, bizarre childhood
reminiscences, skinheads,
mohawks, nosepickers,
really sick stuff by Dennis Cooper (who else?), a piece of fiction by an author
who is famous for having written a piece of fiction
without using the word
hot, weird little drawings
by "Anonymous Boy," and at the end of the publication is a list of other weird-looking little magazines that seem to be of interest.

It would seem that because these mags are not distributed by cigar-sucking, straight assholes like ours is, that they can say anything they want. We think you should support them simply for their sense of freedom, even if they are a little cranky.

SPECIAL THANKS - RON, JON G, MYKEL B, CHRIS W, GLEN B, GLENDAL, BRUCE LB,
KEVIN AND RICHARD D.

IT ALL KINDA SPILLED OUT ONE DAY WHEN OUTA THE CLEAR BLUE JOSH ASKED ME IF I'D STILL WANNA BE HIS FRIEND IF HE TOLD ME HE WAS QUEER. SO I SAID "NO... I'D WANNA BE YOUR BOYFRIEND."

I was lucky to meet anonymous boy at the march on Washington. he draws some totally H*O*T cartoons like "skate hawks in love" "surf punks in love" and tons of other queer-themed cartoons. he said he'd send me new stuff when it's done. yes yes yes! maybe he'll draw one based on my life, "geeky pop punk masterbating." look for more stuff in the future from: ANONYMOUS BOY M.O.O
